The Giver (2014) - Rotten Tomatoes

While a work of fiction, The Go-Giver has been praised by thought leaders across industries and has been on The Wall Street Journal and Businessweek bestsellers list. In an economy that has become profoundly customer-centric, the book's mantra of putting the interest of others first and giving value to their lives sounds powerfully relevant.

Much to the dismay of her husband and father-in-law, Alice signs up and soon learns the ropes from the library's leader, Margery. Margery doesn't care what anyone thinks of her, rejects marriage, and would rather be on horseback than in a kitchen. And even though all this makes Margery a town pariah, Alice quickly grows to like her.
